

Broadstone Arts District

Broadstone Arts District is located adjacent to the Phoenix Art Museum in downtown Phoenix, Arizona. This location has strong pedestrian & transportation links to downtown Phoenix, and to the traditional “First Friday” art walk and street fair.

The project consists of two four story residential buildings located over a below-grade parking garage. On the first floor, leasing and amenity spaces open up the walkway with retail storefronts and outdoor activity areas, enhancing the street life along both streets. Inside the common courtyard are the complex’s amenities, including; the two story fitness center, clubroom, and activity complex that overlooks the resort style pool. Loft style apartments line the perimeter of the complex, taking advantage of the best views, and provide a pleasant exterior design from the outside.

A continuity between the two buildings is enhanced by bridges that connect the buildings and create an interior “L” shaped courtyard.
